

CANADIAN PEACEKEEPING VETERANS ASSOCIATION

OUR ASSOCIATION

Founded in 1991 by former Canadian peacekeepers and federally incorporated in 1993, the Canadian Peacekeeping Veterans Association (CPVA) is a national, veterans-only, democratic, apolitical, non-profit organization open to all veterans.

OUR MISSION

The mission of the CPVA is to bring veterans together in comradeship, to advocate on their behalf, to watch over their rights, and to promote their interests.

OUR MEMBERSHIP

We are active and retired military service personnel, peace officers and civilians who have served in Canada and overseas.

BRINGING VETERANS TOGETHER

We encourage unity, comradeship, and self-assistance, ease the return to civilian life, and promote the welfare of our members by commemorative, community and social activities.

Together we can make a difference.

OUR ACTIVITIES

CPVA activities serve as a social focus for Veterans to permit them to manifest their pride, uphold their dignity, and obtain the recognition they deserve.

We take care of our own.

OUR ADVANTAGES

Membership in CPVA offers:

- Respect & Recognition;
- Comradeship;
- Veteran's Networking;
- PTSD Peer Support;
- Ceremonial, Honours & Awards;
- Veteran's Uniform;
- Humanitarian involvement; and
